

For Immediate Press Release:

Lonoke District Court, Southern District where Judge Teresa Smith presides announces its amnesty program will begin in the month of February.

On these dates:

Lonoke District Court: February 2nd, 2018 Court will be held from 9:30 am to 12:00 pm.

Carlisle District Court: February 23rd, 2018 Court will be held from 9:30 am to 12:00 pm.

England District Court: February 23rd, 2018 Court will be held from 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm.

You must be present to be eligible. If you have outstanding warrants in the Lonoke District Court, Southern District those warrants will be quashed and you will be cited back to court without being arrested.

You must go to the court in which you have the active warrant. Example: Failure to Appear from Lonoke District Court must go to Lonoke District Court on Feb. 2nd @ 9:30 am.

If you have an active warrant for the following, you can come in to speak with the Judge about your specific situation without fear of being arrested.

- Failure to Appear
- Failure to Pay Court Order Fines
- Failure to Serve Community service
- Failure to Serve Jail Time

The individual must provide Photo Identification; provide current Address and current Phone Number. Lastly, bring Money to pay on or pay BALANCE of past due fines. For additional information, please contact the appropriate court clerk.

Lonoke District Court

107 W. 2nd Street,

Lonoke, AR. 72086

501-676-3585

England District Court

110 NW 2nd Street,

England, AR. 72046

501-842-3904

Carlisle District Court

120 W. Main St.

Carlisle, AR. 72024

870-552-3436